

MONTANIAN

Flashlights on Montana

Wednesday, December 26

HELENA — An overwhelming majority of Montana voters — nine in 10 — favor designating Libby as a Superfund site to clean up decades of asbestos contamination, according to a poll by Lee Newspapers.

The poll also shows that Montana voters strongly support an investigation into why state government failed to act to prevent the public health crisis in the Libby area.

JAN 2, 02